

Made in Italy by Kristalla, the Plana chair is available from Fanuli Furniture. Designed by the creative duo Lucidi Pevere, it's the use of injection-moulding technology, with polypropylene reinforced with glass that offers an attractive, resistant and versatile chair.

Above The Kevi chair from Engelbrechts Furniture

Below The Milan Direct Anniversary edition replica Farnes lounge chair and ottoman is the latest product addition in the Milan Direct range. The Milan Direct Lamos Reproduction Anniversary Edition — Premium, stands out from all others, thanks to the premium top grain black Italian leather which is used in the construction of the chair and ottoman.

Above Hugo four-seater lounge from Fantastic Furniture

Above and below The Le Corbusier three-seater sofa and arm chair were originally designed by Swiss architect Le Corbusier for the 1929 Salon d'Automne — a historical fine art exhibition. As one of the most popular pieces of the Modernist era, Le Corbusier sofas can still be found today in museums worldwide. Made to the very highest standards, the Milan Direct reproduction Le Corbusier sofas are covered in a premium Italian leather with frame and legs in the highest quality grade 304 stainless steel frame.

Above Bianco seven-piece dining from Fantastic Furniture.

Above The new Moon table design brings that famous King Furniture flexibility to the coffee table. Separate component parts can be easily rearranged and configured to create different settings.